

Valuation Tribunal for Wales Tribunal Members

Information for becoming a Tribunal Member

About Us

The Valuation Tribunal is a judicially independent organisation that deals with appeals against Non-Domestic Rates, Council Tax and Drainage Rates. The work includes dealing with appeals against the value of small industrial units or a parade of shops, the banding of a small bungalow or a person's eligibility for personal discounts and appeals concerning Council Tax Reduction.

Why Become a Member?

Becoming a member is a great way to volunteer your spare time and give back to your community. It's a fantastic opportunity to gain knowledge and skills and provide a service as part of a national team. This is a voluntary role, however travel expenses and subsistence will be covered.

What?

A member is volunteer that sits on the tribunal panel and is responsible for hearing and determining appeals made by people and businesses who pay council tax or non-domestic rates.

Who?

Anybody can apply to become a member of the Tribunal. You do not need any specific experience or qualifications; full formal training will be provided to successful applicants.

How?

If you are interested in applying for the vacancies, please contact us and we will send you an application form. Further information can be found on the Valuation Tribunal for Wales' website.
